

SLO/PLO Listserv Questions
11/16/12

Responders: 27

1. Does Curriculum Committee approve SLO or PLOs?

2. SLO's or PLO's fast tracked approval process?

3. SLO's imbedded in COR? Or attached as an amendment (addendum)

TOTALS

YES	NO
15	12

YES	NO
2	23

YES	NO
19	8

Glendale Community College
Dr. Mary Mirch
VP Instructional Services

The division, with each new course outline SLOs are included.

X Don't understand your question. It is particular to those who use CurricUNET?

Imbedded into the CORs with new courses and revisions

X

Santa Monica College
Jeff Shimizu
VP Academic Affairs

X All outcomes are in CurricUNET and must be approved by the Chair of Institutional Effectiveness

X SLOs are part of the COR

X

San Bernardino Valley College
Haragewen A. Kinde, Ed.D
Interim VP of Instruction

The Curriculum Committee reviews SLOs/PLOs that the faculty provide when uploading the SLO/PLOs as an attachment to a course/program in CurricUNET.

X The department faculty develops the SLO/PLO for their respective course/programs. The curriculum committee (CurricUNET) review only.

X The SLO/PLO is required as an attachment when submitting proposals within CurricUNET. These SLO/PLO are uploaded to the Instruction Office database.

X

Butte College
Samia Yaqub, Ph.D.
VP Student Learning & Economic Development

X We use CurricUNET for approval but do not have a fast-track process specific to SLOs or PLOs

X SLOs are embedded in CORs

X

San Joaquin Delta College
Dr. Matt Wetstein
Interim VP of Instruction

SLO's are approved with course revisions, and PLO's during program revisions or when new ones are proposed.

X Not "fast-tracked" but approved in the normal course of SLO and PLO development and retained in (No Suggestions)

X SLOs are embedded in the course outline of record in CurricUNET. I am going to ask our curriculum committee to consider policy requiring the listing of SLOs in all course syllabi.

X

Evergreen Valley College
Keith D. Aytch
VP Academic Affairs

The Curriculum Committee approves all SLOs and PLOs for new degrees

X

X They are embedded in the CORs

X

Citrus College
Irene Malmgren

Curriculum Committee approves SLOs and PLOs

X Both are fast-tracked through, using CurricUNET.

X SLOs are imbedded in the COR.

X

College of the Canyons
Audrey Green
Assoc. V.P., Academic Affairs

The Curriculum Committee approves both SLOs & PLOs

X

They go through the CurricUNET approval process We have one of the SLO Coordinators as a reviewer.

X SLOs are embedded in the CORs

X

San Diego Mesa College
Tim McGrath
V.P., Instruction

Each department/school reviews their SLOs and determines if they work or not for their program. Our curriculum committee does not review SLOs.

X Each department/school works on their SLOs with their dean and determines if they are adequate to meet the departments needs. Once work has been completed then the SLOs are recorded.

X We use CurricUNET and each course has a SLO associated with it.

X

SLO/PLO Listserv Questions

11/16/12

Responder:	1. Does Curriculum Committee approve SLO or PLOs?	2. SLO's or PLO's fast tracked approval process?		3. SLO's imbedded in COR? Or attached as an amendment (addendum)
		YES	NO	YES	NO
Gavilan College Kathleen A. Rose, Ed.D. Exec. V.P. and CIO	The Curriculum Committee does not approve the SLO/PLOs. The academic depts. identify and approve them.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	We have our own database for reporting and assessing the SLOs and PLOs	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	The SLOs are imbedded in the CORs.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Merced College Marianne Tortorici	Our curriculum committee approves SLOs.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SLOs are approved thru CurricUNET.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SLOs are imbedded in CORs	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Cerro Coso Community Corey Marvin V.P. of Academic Affairs	Our curriculum committee approves SLOs as part of the COR and PLOs as part of new and revised prog. Proposals.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Simply approved at the time courses and programs are approved.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	We long ago changed "course objectives" to SLOs	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Foothill College Kimberlee Messina, Ed.D V.P. of Instruction & Institutional research	SLOs and PLOs are approved at the department level.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Once the department has approved them they are put into TracDat.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	The are not part of the COR, but are included on the course syllabus and listed on the college website.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Las Positas College Janice Noble, Ph.D. V.P. of Academic Affairs	The Discipline Coordinator approves these for each discipline.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Are placed in our database eLumen.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	They are not imbedded in our COR.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Chaffee College Sherrie Guerrero, Ed.D. Instruction and Student Services	Curriculum committee ensures SLOs exist. The also make sure that those course SLOs align with program and institutional learning outcomes.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	All learning outcomes are in CurricUNET.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Amendment	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Bakersfield College Nan Gomez-Heitzeberg	Assessment Committee approves SLOs. SLO Coord. reviews SLOs and works with depts on SLOs. However, the Coord. sits on the Curriculum Committee and there is a review there. We find faculty are getting mixed messages and directions by having Curriculum committee members review & approve.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	The review and development occurs outside of the curriculum committee. With our implementation of CurricUNET there is no fast tracking of anything.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SLOs are part of the COR and are also expected to be embedded in each syllabus.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
San Jose City College Tammeil Y. Gilkerson Interim V.P. of Academic Affairs	Curriculum Committee approves all SLOs and PLOs for new degrees.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	They are embedded in CORs.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
College of the Redwoods Utpal K. Goswami, Ph.D V.P. of Instruction		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SLOs are part of COR. SLOs are assessed on a two year cycle.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

SLO/PLO Listserv Questions
11/16/12

Responder:	1. Does Curriculum Committee approve SLO or PLOs?	2. SLO's or PLO's fast tracked approval process?		3. SLO's imbedded in COR? Or attached as an amendment (addendum)
		YES	NO	YES	NO	YES	NO
GCCCD Barbara Blanchard	Our curriculum committee does not approve or review SLOs. The SLO Coord. Reviews SLOs and works with depts. on development and assessment of SLOs	X	The is no fast tracking as depts. are free to update them as necessary.	X	SLOs are currently an addendum to the COR, however, they will be part of curriculum as we are transition to CurricUNET.			X
Copper Mountain College Wei Zhou	Approved by Curriculum approval process	X	If only change is SLOs or PLOs which means curriculum committee review	X	SLOs and PLOs are in the CORs.			X
Barstow Community College Stephen B. Eaton, Ed.S. V.P. of Academic Affairs	Sent same answers as Cerro Coso Community College. (Forwarded)	X		X				X
Mt. San Antonio College Virginia Burley, Ph.D. V.P., Instruction	We have Outcomes Committee but in the end nobody "approves" . The faculty are just expected to identify outcomes and assess them as part of their planning.	X	We maintain outcomes on the TracDat software so that we can create reports as needed for compliance reporting. Faculty post SLOs/ PLOs on TracDat and post methods of assessment, results of assessment, and planning efforts based on assessment.	X	SLOs are not embedded nor are they attached as an amendment. An Outcomes Assessment Plan being developed by the faculty now proposes that SLOs be added in some way to the curriculum, but I have doubts it will pass the Senate.			X
Fullerton College Terrence D. Giugni, Ph.D. V.P., Instruction	Curriculum Committee approves SLOs and PLOs as part of the Curriculum process. The do not usually look hard at SLOs that is the task of the SLO Assessment Committee.	X	They are part of the normal approval process. We do not have a fast track process when an area needs to make a large number of updates or changes to the SLOs or PLOs.	X	They are embedded in the CORs and the description of program. We have a page on CurricUNET where this info is input and when a hard copy of the COR is pulled the SLOs are embedded.			X
Santa Rosa Jr. College Mary Kay Rudolph	CRC reviews and approves SLO and PLOs as part of a request to revise existing courses/programs or to create new courses/ programs.	X	All courses and programs now have SLOs or PLOs so we have stopped tracking this. When we were tracking, we did this via an EXCEL work-sheet which identified course/program, dept. and responsible administrator.	X	Embedded in the COR or program information.			X
Feather River College Derek Lerch Interim Dean of Instruction/CIO		X	They go through the regular process.	X	Imbedded in CORs			X

SLO/PLO Listserv Questions
11/16/12

Responder:

1. Does Curriculum Committee approve SLO or PLOs?

YES NO

2. SLO's or PLO's fast tracked approval process?

YES NO

3. SLO's imbedded in COR? Or attached as an amendment (addendum)

YES NO

Cabrillo College

Course SLOs are written by departments and approved by the SLO Coordinator as part of curriculum submission. We use CurricUNET.

X We do not fast track the approval of the course SLOs. SLOs for certificates and degrees are written by the departments.

X The SLOs are imbedded in the CORs.

X

East Los Angeles College

Laura M. Ramirez
Interim V.P.
Office of Workforce Education

SLO and PLO are processed via the SLO Committee and Coordinator.

X

The SLO is part of the COR and an attachment to the COR only. Each dept. has access to TracDat (our SLO system).

X