

I thought that the results were interesting because I had heard that “Colleges all over the State are cancelling summer session in 2013”. The following chart seems to dispel that notion. Thank you to everyone that responded. (P.S. In order received not alphabetical)

College	Cancelled summer classes for 2013	Reinstated courses for summer 2013 (after prop 30)	Planned summer courses basically the same as prior years.	Planned a reduced summer for 2013	If you planned a reduced summer, how did you do it?
Alameda	NO		Yes, about the same as prior years	NO
Cabrillo	NO			Added courses after prop 30 passed.
Ohlone	NO	YES	Same as last year.	Half of three years ago	Mostly transfer courses
Merced	NO		Reduced by about 50%
Cypress	NO		Slightly reduced summer schedule each year.
Citrus	NO		YES	NO
Bakersfield	NO	YES	YES		GE courses and High Demand Courses
Santa Monica	NO		YES
Foothill	NO		YES	Expanded summer session in 2013
Orange Coast	NO		NO	Expanded by 20% over 2011 and 170% over 1012	Counselors

Chaffey	NO			Double 2012 schedule	AA/AS general education requirements, CSU/UC IGETC, and the critical CTE that needed to be offered.
Las Positas	NO		About the same as 2012
Butte	NO		About the same as last year
Santa Barbara	NO		Similar to 2012	May be a small increase over 2012
College of the Redwoods	NO		Similar to 2012	May be a small increase
Barstow	NO		Same as prior years
Mt. Sac	NO		Same as prior years	May be a small increase
Fullerton	NO	Had discussed the possibility		Slight increase over 2012
Solano	NO			Added a few sections over 2012
Norco	NO, but cancellation was the plan prior to prop 30	Reinstated	About the same as prior years		Enrollment Management committee
Chabot	NO	There is discussion on campus		Augmentation over 2012	Concern about growth
Santiago Canyon	NO			10% more than 2012
San Joaquin Delta	Originally Planned	Yes, reinstated	NO, different	Smaller	Approved by committee approved by Deans

College of the Siskiyous	NO		YES	Wants to expand on-line offerings
Cerritos	NO			30% cut over 2012
Santa Rosa	NO		Same as last year	It is now 50% of the 2008 schedule
Glendale	NO		Same as prior years		Based on what we could afford
San Francisco	NO		Larger than 2012	Smaller than 2011
Sierra	NO		About the same, focusing on English and Math.
Victor Valley	It was a possibility	Reinstated	Smaller than last year by 50%		Only AS-T and AA-T courses and some CTE